PURPOSE

The Foundation School of Church Music continues to contribute to better singing in the churches of Christ. The first objectives are still before the teachers at all times:

1. Have better singing in our assemblies, and provide good singing for weddings, funerals, and special occasions.
2. Train experienced and inexperienced song leaders.
3. Enable church leaders and potential teachers so that they can equip their home congregations (including music theory, voice, special groups, and song leading).
4. Provide training in music theory for beginners through experienced song writers and encourage them to write spiritual music.
5. Have a lot of fun practicing, learning, and singing praises to our Lord

Time is provided for practice, learning how to select songs for all occasions, and how to use the voice, face, and hands effectively when leading and directing singing.

SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE

Each person is allowed to study on a level where they are comfortable, yet challenged. It is our belief that all members of the church should be able to read music, especially song leaders. Several levels of classes are provided where music theory and sight reading are taught by good, qualified and respected Christian instructors.

STAFF

We are blessed to have an excellent teaching staff, including: Bob Connel, John Connel, Cecil Price, Cheryl Price, Laura Price Miller, Wade Price and Nathan Wight. Each of these instructors love to sing and love to teach!!

WHY A SINGING SCHOOL?

There is no over-estimating the importance of good congregational singing. Not only should Christians strive to improve the quality of their worship, but good singing is a vital tool in the evangelistic purpose of the church. We are commanded to teach and admonish by song (Col. 3:16). By training your song leaders, future leaders, or those who are simply interested in bettering themselves as singers, we will help your congregation have better singing.

WHAT IS TAUGHT?

Sight Reading, Fundamentals of Music, Song Leading, Voice, Harmony, Composition, How To Teach Singing, and other things relating to these subjects are taught. Students also enjoy chorus work, and special groups such as trios, quartets, etc.

WHO MAY ATTEND?

All sincere students 11 years and older (under 11 must have special permission). Adults are especially encouraged to attend. This may well be the best week of your life!

WHAT ABOUT MEALS AND LODGING?

We are blessed to have great cooks that are willing to work with our school. The meals taste great, and are good for you, also. You will change your idea about "camp food" forever!

Students will lodge in dorms and will need to bring bedding. Married couples who want to room together must bring their motor home or trailer, or commute from a nearby town. Please notify us in advance if you will need R.V. space.

WILL YOU FIT IN?

YES! There are classes for everyone, from beginners through advanced students. We do reserve the right to dismiss, without refund, any student who will not conform to school policies.

WHAT IS THE DAILY SCHEDULE?

School begins each morning with breakfast at 7:30. At 8:30 we meet for a devotional and begin learning. Instruction continues throughout the morning. Afternoon session begins at 1:00 (after a one hour break for lunch) and continues until 4:00. Supper is at 6:00. Students return at 7:00 p.m. for sight reading and general singing practice (the public is invited). The school closes with a special program on Friday evening July 3, at 7:00 p.m. with the students, staff, and guests. This is a longstanding tradition of our school, and is a great time of singing together.

WHEN SHOULD YOU ARRIVE?

You should arrive between 3:00 and 6:00 P.M. on Sunday, June 28.. Transportation from the Austin-Bergstrom Airport can be provided.

WHERE?

Our school will meet at Twin Oaks Ranch, just outside of Buda, Texas. This is only twenty minutes south of Austin. Please call for directions.

WHAT IS THE COST?

The cost is small, both in comparison to other schools, and in comparison to what the student will receive, as well as because of the good the student should be able to do for the cause of Christ. The cost of tuition, room, board, and supplies is $225 ($250 after May 1). Pitch pipes will be available at additional cost.

WHAT SHOULD YOU BRING?

Students need to bring a love for singing and a desire to learn. Also, please bring Bible, bedding, including pillow, personal toiletries, flashlight, towels for bathing and swimming, modest clothing (including swimsuit) for the week, plus a nicer outfit for the program on Friday.
